Group Presentation Marking Scheme - OB Presentations:

Content and Organization	Language	Delivery
Level of preparation – Has evidently prepared all notes and supporting material. Good balance between academic content and practical implications Structure of presentation - Introduction very clearly lays out the objectives of the presentation The outline (agenda) of the presentation is introduced Body of the presentation is well structured Conclusion very clearly summarises and rounds off the presentation	 Language and voice proficiency- Uses a wide range of vocabulary Fluent and natural (any pauses are consistent with natural speech Consistently uses an appropriate tone for this topic Able to express ideas with precision Body language- Appropriate dress and mannerisms Eye contact and body language used with good effect 	Connection — Effective well mannered techniques used to involve the audience Relaxed and confident Visual aids effectively integrated into the presentation Visual aids are clear and easy to understand Interest and appeal— Uses topic that is relevant to the audience Focused and clear discussion
 Ability to answer questions - Presenters are able to answer questions Demonstrate expertise of the topic introduced 	 Presenters are able to continually demonstrate enthusiasm for topic 	 Timing – Timing and pacing well managed and has been well rehearsed Within 2 minutes of required time